24 October 1958

My dear Mr. Dulles:

It is my pleasure to again extend a cordial invitation to the Central Intelligence Agency to nominate an official of appropriate background and experience to attend the Course in Naval Warfare at the United States Naval War College, Newport, Rhode Island. The 1959-1960 session of the War College is scheduled to convene on 21 August 1959 and will conclude on 15 June 1960.

Naval officers of the grades of Commander and Captain with fifteen to twenty-three years' commissioned service will be enrolled in the Course in Naval Warfare. It is desired that your nominee for this course be of comparable grade and service experience.

Should you find it feasible to permit an official of your Agency to accept this assignment, he is invited to participate in the usual familiarization training program conducted for personnel of other military services and civilian officials before the opening of the regular session. This program, of one week duration, will consist of lectures, tours of naval installations, and short cruises on Atlantic Fleet vessels including submarines. He should report to the President of the Naval War College not later than 13 August 1959 for this purpose.

Information at an early date as to the acceptance of the invitation- al guests extended herein will be appreciated. Additionally, if accepted, I would like the name of your nominee along with a resume of his background and experience that this information may be provided the President of the Naval War College.

We are most pleased to have Mr. [] civilian official of your Agency, in attendance at the current session of the Naval War College. He is contributing in an outstanding manner to the success of the Navy training program of the War College.

Sincerely yours,

/signed/ Tom
